

Mary Bounds

Assistant Director of Public Safety

Assistant Director of Public Safety Mary Bounds was born and raised in the City of Cleveland. She has had a long and distinguished career with the Cleveland Division of Police. Mary was appointed to the Division of Police in 1980 and retired in 2005. During those years she had a wide variety of duties and responsibilities in the Division of Police, including serving as a Sergeant, Lieutenant, Neighborhood Police District Commander, Deputy Chief of Police, and from 2001 to 2002, Chief of Police.

Mary earned an Associate Degree from Cuyahoga Community College; a BA from Notre Dame College; and a MBA from Baldwin Wallace College.

As Assistant Director of Public Safety in the Jackson Administration, her duties have focused on the management of public safety administration; working to enhance recruitment of minorities for public safety divisions; and managing a process to minimize or reduce quality of life problems in the City of Cleveland.
